Description

The size of the baking tray of the Metos Diamante D72 / 10PLGP lava stone grill with open base is 390x650 mm. The delivery of the lava stone grill includes a meat grate made of stainless steel.

The lava stone grill has a piezo ignition. The temperature control is operated by a gas valve with which the size of the flame can be adjusted. The height of the frypot is also adjustable. The grate, lava stone basin and grease trap under the burners are removable and the appliance is easy to clean. The stainless steel burner is equipped with a flame arrestor that prevents gas from entering the flameless device.
